1. For questions 1-15, read the text below and decide which answer A,B, C or D best fits each space . There is an example at the beginning (0).

Jailed birds as jailbirds

Although the therapeutic .... (0) C ... of pets has been appreciated for some time , they have not been allowed in British prisons until relatively (1) .....

Not long ago it (2) ..... to the prison authorities that prisoners serving long sentences mus feel (3) ..... by society and that was (4) ..... the reason why they became less cooperative . It was then suggested that they were (5) ..... to respond positively if they were allowed to keep a budgie . Realising that long-term prisoners (6) ..... through a great deal of suffering, the appropriate government department went (7) ..... with the idea.

After a trial period, the authorities (8) ..... the conclusion that looking after a small, helpless bird brought out a (9) ..... side in most prisoners. This, in turn, (10) ..... some prisoners and their jailers closer together. The authorities were (11) ..... relieved because there had been some opponents to the scheme who had passionately warned (12) ..... it.

Since the scheme was (13) ..... , inmates have been able to (14) ..... from the boredom of prison life and see their situation from a completely different (15) .....
